Originally formed in June of 2001, the Band now comprises of:

- Keith Howe (Guitar & Vocals),
- Andy MacDonald (Percussion and Vocals) and
- Paul Arnott (Bass Guitar and Vocals).

The Band have built a reputation for delivering a powerful & passionate, mainly original material played with a commitment and professionalism that comes from their many years of touring the Rock, Blues and R&B circuits.

Clocking up 1,000's of performances, the Band have power hosed their way across the UK and abroad showcasing their own brand of Weapons Grade Rock and Renegade Blues.

Their influences are many and varied, pulling in the best of Rock and Blues from their seminal beginning right up to tomorrow with their live performances often compared to many of their hero's including Cream, Hendrix, Led Zeppelin, Taste & Johnny Winter to name but a few.

Their original material stands alongside the best of the best and regularly gets airplay worldwide.

Having already released three albums showcasing their music (including a rockin' Live C.D.) the Band is currently promoting their latest studio CD entitled "Suckin' Out Venom" endorsed by Deep Purple's Ian Gillan and once again showcasing their signature guitar driven Rock/Blues.

They have also made friends & played alongside some major names including:

Deep Purple, Walter Trout, Joe Bonamassa, Peter Frampton, Thunder,

Carvin Jones, Wilko Johnson, Egypt, The Hamsters, Larry Miller.

So, If you like your Blues Rocked and your Rock Bluesed then let Blue on Black loose, they are the Band to experience.
